

Oroblù Introduces SS12 Hosiery Collections

Oroblù's range has every party, occasion and Luxury Italian hosiery brand Oroblù launches it's SS12 collections, playing on femininity, elegance and sophistication. Encompassing three unique themes, the range features a combination of romantic laces to metallic statements, prints and patterns embracing all key SS12 trends.

'Charme Europeo' incorporates classic sheer and lace inspired designs, using a mix of romantic French taste and sophisticated Italian fashion. The range includes minimal styles enhancing the elegance of the figure by using refined materials and sensual, delicate laces. Floral patterns and polka dot details in pastel tones are used to create a spring feel, while frill, bow and ribbon details decorate and finish the garments to give truly timeless look.

'Terra d' Africa' adopts a world traveler theme with geometric patterns and Moroccan inspired prints, alongside cashmere mixed fabrics and irregular nets.

Fine fishnets and bejeweled leggings create an understated evening feel, whilst bold animal and paisley printed tights and socks are designed for a statement entrance.

Finally, 'American Style' consists of New York Street inspired styling. Openwork patterns, stripes, torn lace and metallic effects all contribute to the retro range. Colour contrasts play a key role within the range with sheer clashes between black and white as well as green, purple and blue tones. Finally classic black styles appear within the collection punctuated by accents of gold, silver and bronze for a glamorous evening effect effect.
