

WACOAL DIA – Exquisite Spring Summer 2012 collection

Harrods continues to offer exclusively the luxury intimates and sleepwear label WACOAL DIA for SS2012.

Originating from Japan, this sensual and stunning assortment is made with delicate tulle, embroideries and the finest silk and lace.

The sumptuous Mariage range is presented in pure ivory for the season with a heavenly lace bra, thong and silk knicker. However, the most stunning and opulent piece is the boned corset with lace. Reminiscent of vintage bridal lingerie, these designs will complete the trousseau of the most elegant bride this wedding season.

In tulle and lace the Chantilly bra, deliciously frilly brief and lace thong returns in 'Apricot'. The range is also enhanced by two camisoles – one with a deeply open décolleté and tulle power mesh incorporated from under the bust to the hemline and the other is sheer and celebrates the beauty of Chantilly lace, with a square neck-line.

The Louise bra is a new gorgeous addition, featuring a lace sweetheart neckline that accentuates décolleté beautifully and mirrors eveningwear rather than underwear and the teasingly sheer briefs are edged with Stretch Leavers lace.

At the royal wedding, the Duchess of Cambridge, Catherine, wore a wedding gown decorated with laces from Sophie Hallette, a French lace manufacturer that many Haute Couture maisons love as well.

WACOAL DIA has also been using the delicate high-gauged lace and classical Leavers laces from Sophie Hallette, for all the ranges stocked in Harrods.

WACOAL DIA's Hollywood-style full length nightwear and delicious delicates are indulgent and lust worthy – just how lingerie should be.
